SELECTION REQUIREMENTS:

Read and understand skater’s responsibilities and qualifications

- Skaters must be a current member of ISI and skating under Cottage Grove Skating School for ISI tests and competitions.
- All outstanding skating fees and arena bills must be paid before February 10, 2020.
- Skaters 11 years old and younger (age on Jan 20, 2020) and graduating seniors must have passed a minimum of Freestyle 3 and Dance 4, or Freestyle 4 and Dance 3 (freestyle & dance = 7).
- Skaters 12 years old and older (age on Jan 20, 2020) must have passed a minimum of Freestyle 4 and Dance 6 or Freestyle 6 and Ice Dance 4 or Freestyle 5 and Dance 5 = 10.
- Skaters must have participated in at least 3 ISI competitions from January 2019 - December 2019 representing Cottage Grove.
- Skaters may enter one of three categories: 1) Individual Feature, 2) Couples/Pairs and 3) Ice Dance.
- Skaters will be given points based upon the Points outline listed on following page. You may be asked to participate as a step out featured skater, or pair team.
- Skater and his/her parents must read the Ice Show Responsibilities.
- Skater must list all Cottage Grove Skating School classes participated in Summer 2019 through Spring 2020.
- Skaters will be assigned a part to play that fits the theme of the show. If you have an idea that fits the theme you may submit your idea for consideration with your Feature Application Form. Please note that not all ideas will be approved. Ideas must be submitted before February 15, 2020.
- Your music should be on a CD for the best sound. Edited music must be turned in on picture night
  - Music must be less than 1 ½ minutes for Freestyle 3-5. For skaters who have passed Freestyle 6, maximum is 2 minutes. You must okay your costume and music with the Ice Show Director prior to March 3, 2020.
  - Label your CD with your name and name of solo music. Make yourself a copy so you can turn your music in early (we would like your CD by April 1, 2020) if you didn’t turn it in on picture night.

RESPONSIBILITIES FOR ICE SHOW FEATURES:

- Skaters must turn in edited CD on Ice Show picture night. If not turned in on picture night your CD must be emailed to our music coordinator before April 4th, 2020.
- Skater’s music must fit theme of show and required length.
- Skater acquires and prepares his/her costume before Ice Show picture night.
- Skater choreographs or hires a coach to choreograph his/her routine to the show Director's requirements.
- Skater must be available for rehearsals and must skate in both performances of the show.
- Skater must continue to participate in the required programs that he/she has registered for.

All interested skaters must fully complete the following information to be considered. All skaters will be given points for their Freestyle level and points based upon their participation in competitions and Skating School classes. Classes include Freestyle, Power, Specialty, Team Compulsory, Production, Ice Dance and Student Instructor training. Those skaters who meet the required level and have the most points will be given a Featured Solo in this year’s Spring Ice Show.
